

Did You Know?

Hudson County Community College Educates the Doers and Thinkers Who Will Transform Tomorrow

The Hudson County Community College (HCCC) School of Humanities and Social Sciences produces artists, educators, justice and social services professionals who enrich and improve our community. HCCC certificate and degree programs lead to entry-level career positions and/or baccalaureate and graduate degrees at four-year colleges and universities.

Explore in-demand career pathways available through the HCCC School of Humanities and Social Sciences!

CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

Addictions Counseling - Certified Alcohol/Drug Counselor (CADC)
Human Services - Social Justice Advocacy
Digital Art and Design
Infant and Toddler Child Development Associate (CDA)
Preschool Child Development Associate (CDA)

ASSOCIATE DEGREE PROGRAMS

Criminal Justice

Criminal Justice (A.S., on-site or fully online)
Criminal Justice – Homeland Security (A.S.)

Education

Early Childhood Education (A.A.S.)
Early Childhood Education – Liberal Arts (A.A., on-site and fully online)
Infant/Toddler Education – Liberal Arts (A.A.)
Elementary/Secondary Education – Liberal Arts (A.A., on-site and fully online)
Special Education – Liberal Arts (A.A., on-site and fully online)

History

History– Liberal Arts (A.A., on-site and fully online)
Human Services– Social Justice Advocacy (A.S.)
Human Services – Pre-Social Work– Addiction Counseling (A.S.)

Liberal and Visual Arts

English (A.A., on-site and fully online)
English – Communications Studies (A.A.)
Liberal Arts – General (A.A., on-site and fully online)
Studio Arts (A.F.A.)
Studio Arts – Computer Arts (A.F.A.)
Theatre Arts – Liberal Arts (A.A.)

Psychology (A.A., on-site and fully online)

Sociology (A.A.)

Learn all about HCCC's School of Humanities and Social Sciences programs at www.hccc.edu/didyouknow

HUDSON COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Hudson is Home!